Overview And Experience

Noah C. Rosenbaum is an associate with Alvarez, Thompson, & Smoak, P.A. His practice is focused on litigation.

Noah received his Bachelor of Arts degree from College of Charleston in 2017. Thereafter, he received his Juris Doctorate from University of Miami in 2020. While attending law school, Noah held a judicial internship with the Federal Magistrates Court of the Southern District of Florida.

Before practicing, he was a certified legal intern for the State Attorney's office in the 6th Judicial Circuit. Before joining Alvarez, Thompson & Smoak, P.A., Noah worked for a large personal injury law firm where he represented Plaintiffs that were injured in automobile accidents. During his three years working as a personal injury attorney, he gained valuable knowledge and insight which he now uses to aggressively defend his clients.

Noah is originally from Miami, Florida and has resided in Central Florida since 2021. When he is not working, he enjoys spending quality time and traveling with his friends and family.
